From the Dugout

Deadlines are just a normal part of business and these days the computer with "instant response" and "real time" make it harder to actually think about what you're doing or saying. I don't know how many times I've written out an email, only to catch a typo after it has gone to the "sent" folder. I try to move on, but I view it as a personal reflection of my character and up-bringing. So from now on, I will strive for email perfection! I got all my gray hair meeting creative deadlines. I hope it doesn't fall out over this.

'Nil text time, Kith

World Series

Trivia: What is the most number of times a player has come to bat in a single Series game?

Last month's answer:

Four, no player has ever hit five in a Series game.
