From the Dugout

This month, I'd like to take time to thank a long-time business associate and an even longer-time friend for all the help he has given me over the past few years. He works behind the scenes and is my number one pinch hitter. We each have different skills and strengths, but combined, I believe we supply a better product than either one of us could do individually. So without further ado, thank you so much Steve Spetseris for all you do.

Til next time, Keith

Trivia: Last month's answer:
Lou Brock's .391 is the highest 20 game average
